

The 8th edition of the International Conference on Sustainability, Technology and Education (STE 2020) was held in São Paulo, Brazil (5-7 February, 2020).

This conference was organized by the International Association for Development of the Information Society (IADIS) and co-organized by the UPS.

Co-organized by:

This edition was published jointly with the 10th International Conference on Internet Technologies & Society (ITS 2020).

These events received 59 submissions from more than 9 countries. Each submission was reviewed in a double-blind review process by an average of four independent reviewers to ensure quality and maintain high standards. Out of the papers submitted, 12 got blind referee ratings that published them as full and short papers, which meant that the acceptance rate was 20%. Some other submissions were published as reflection and doctoral papers.

Extended versions of the best papers were selected to be published in a:

- ❖ “Green IT and Sustainability” Journal (ISSN: 2071-1050)

In addition to the papers’ presentations, the conference program also included two keynote presentations by Alexandre F. Barbosa & Fabio Senne (Cetic.br – Regional Center of Studies for the Development of Information Society – Under the auspices of UNESCO, Brazil) and Flávio Hourneaux Junior (University of Sao Paulo (USP), Brazil).

Keynote Presentation:

“DIGITAL INCLUSION AND SOCIAL WELFARE: AN ANALYSIS OF THE TRAJECTORY OF ACCESS, USE AND APPROPRIATION OF THE INTERNET IN BRAZIL”

by Alexandre F. Barbosa & Fabio Senne, CETIC – Regional Center for the Development of Information Society – Under the auspices of UNESCO, Brazil

Keynote Presentation:

“THE CHALLENGE OF MEASURING SUSTAINABILITY IN ORGANISATIONS”

by Flávio Hourneaux Junior, University of Sao Paulo (USP), Brazil

In general, this event served as a forum that gathered researchers, practitioners, students and anyone that was working or studying in the field of the Information Systems. The STE 2020 Conference proceedings edited by Piet Kommers, Adriana Backx Noronha Viana, Theodora Issa, Pedro Isaías and Tomayess Issa was published in hard copy (ISBN: 978-989-8533-99-9) by IADIS Press.
